

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND

2018 NOPBC Youth Track
Live the Life You Want

Welcome to the 2018 NOPBC Youth Track!

We are so excited that you are taking part in this year's Youth Track. We hope that you find these sessions not only prepare you to live the life you want, but that they also will be a place where you will meet new friends, become more confident and independent and have a lot of fun. So, bring your cane, your positivity, and your open mind for a great Youth Track in Orlando! Don't have a cane? That's okay – we will have a cane bank there for you to use for Youth Track sessions.

Sessions are open to all blind and low vision students, children of blind adults and sighted siblings aged 11-18 unless stated differently in description.

Day 1: Tuesday, July 3, 2018

7:30 AM – 8:45 AM: Youth Track Registration

TBD

9:00 AM – 10:45 AM: Ice Breakers and Introductions

TBD

Let the games begin. This first session we will see old friends, and discover new ones. If this is your first time, or you are a little bit shy, no worries, everyone will have a perfect place in our introduction session.

11:00 AM – 12:15 PM: Introduction to your National Federation of the Blind Convention and Youth Track Activities

TBD

So much to do, So little time. This convention has so much to offer. It's sometimes hard to decide which sessions to attend. Come learn what happens each day, and get your questions answered so you can make this convention your best ever. In this session, you never know who you may meet. You may even win a door prize.

12:15 PM – 1:45 PM: Lunch

2:00 PM – 3:30 PM: Breakout Sessions

- Expressions

TBD

Express yourself. There are so many ways to construct beautiful artistic creations. Come learn all the ways you can create tactile art.

- Philosophy and Games

TBD

In the Federation, we talk a lot about our positive philosophy of blindness. Let's dive in together and explore what that means. This session is all about you. Blindness, Handicap or Characteristic.

3:30 PM – 5:00 PM: Breakout Sessions

- What Kinds of Jobs Can Blind People Do?

TBD

Not sure what you want to be when you grow up? Come meet blind mentors working in all kinds of jobs. Already have your career planned out? Great! Come meet someone in your field who can give you some useful tips and tricks.

- Sports and Rec Division Activities

TBD

Grab a mentor, and let's explore what the National Federation of the Blind Sports and Rec Division has to offer this convention.

5:30 PM – 7:00 PM: NOPBC Family Hospitality

TBD

7:00 PM – 8:00 PM: Mocktail party.

TBD Mix and mingle with Federation leaders. Practice those networking skills and get to know the people who are paving the way for us to live the lives we want.

8:00 PM – 10:00PM: Breakout Sessions

- National Association of Blind Students Networking Event

TBD

Come meet students in college. Mentors can help facilitate introductions and assist in initiating conversations that can help answer some burning questions for our high school youth.

- It's Cool to be in Middle School:

TBD

Welcome to all students in middle school for a night to mix and mingle – or in Middle School language – “Chillax.” If you are in Middle School, then come out for a night of meeting other middle schoolers, music, dancing, snacks and socializing!

Day 2: Wednesday, July 4, 2018

8:45 AM – 10:30 AM: Breakout Sessions

- Looking Good, Feeling Good

TBD

Looking and feeling your best often comes when skill meets confidence. Many blind mentors are excited to share with you their tips and tricks you can use to look and feel your best. Some of the things you can learn include: Tying a tie and shaving; putting on makeup and creating fabulous hairstyles; choosing and shopping for your style of clothes; and how to use and understand body language to communicate your thoughts and feelings.

- Cane Walk

TBD

Don't have a cane yet? Come explore how a cane can give you more freedom. You can receive a free NFB white cane. Then take a walk with the world's best cane training instructors. Come learn how awesome it feels to walk proud and free.

- Philosophy: Accommodation or Special Treatment

Wekiwa 2, Level 2

TBD

In school and in work, we use accommodations to accomplish the same assignments and tasks as our peers. But, what does that mean? How can we tell if we are getting fair accommodations to get the same treatment, and hold the same expectations as our peers? Let's explore this important conversation together.

10:30 AM – 12:00 PM: Breakout Sessions

TBD

Whether you want to learn the latest dance steps happening in your favorite music video, or just not embarrass yourselves or the ones around you, we're all going to dance till we drop. Sure dancing is about self-expression, and we have just the right mentors to help you get comfortable with your most original or freshest moves.

8:00 PM – 10:00 PM: Breakout Sessions

- Dating 101 (Ages 14 and up)

TBD

So many questions. How do we meet people? how do we get there? What if my date is also blind? What if my date is sighted? And so much more! We will create a safe space to talk with mentors and each other to explore how dating can be a fun safe, and exciting part of our lives.

- All in the Family:

TBD

Are you a sighted Sibling of a blind person? This session is for you. Let's talk with other mentors about any questions or thoughts you may have. What does the cane actually do? Can I read braille too? How can I make sure my sibling and I get the same kinds of chores? How can I deal with people who stare? Siblings can experience a cane walk, learn the alphabet in Braille, and ask any questions they have.

Day 5: Saturday, July 7, 2018 – GENERAL SESSION

7:00 PM – 9:00 PM: Breakout Sessions

- 7:00 PM – 8:00PM: Philosophy: What Have We Learned so Far, and Next Steps?

TBD

WE have accomplished so many things together this convention. Let's explore all the things we learned, and learn all the ways we can stay connected, and keep our federation spirit alive all year long. Prizes will be awarded from the exhibit hall challenge.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00PM: Career Fair

TBD

Take all you have learned and use those skills to impress potential employers in the career fair. Here is the place where you can practice a job interview, review your resume, and meet people who may hire you in the future.
