  - Banquet: Saturday evening, July 18
  - NASA History of Space Flight Tour: Thursday, July 16, 11:00 AM. If you would like to attend, please visit nfbtx.org to complete a quick form (to prevent Zoom bombing). After you complete the form you will receive an email with the tour Zoom link.
  - Please check the NOPBC website nopbc.org for activities for children.
  - Tech seminars & updates, new products, autonomous vehicles, AI, accessible voting, higher ed testing accommodations, Greek frat & sorority issues, diversity, inclusion, & discrimination challenges, legislation & advocacy updates, self-advocacy, mentoring opportunities, opportunities to meet with disability rights attorneys, training center open houses, employment & career seminars, career fair, money management, social security info, health apps, state caucuses, and much more!
  - NFB Division & Group activities: Blind Students, Deaf-Blind, Employment, Sports and Rec, Crafts, Performing Arts, Community Service, Guide Dog Users, Blind Parents, Educators, Lawyers, Scientists, Engineers, Computer Scientists, Musicians, Writers, and many more. Open to all
  - Our incomparable Exhibit Hall. This year’s virtual Exhibit Hall will be hosted on the CrowdCompass platform. Mobile apps are available for both iOS and Android. A web portal is also available. Find all links along with helpful information for visiting the virtual Exhibit Hall at https://www.nfb.org/convention.
  - The Banquet and scholarship presentations
EXPRESSING OUR APPRECIATION…

The NOPBC would like to offer a special thank you to NFB President Mark Riccobono and the NFB staff for helping us convert to a virtual conference. We also thank Amy Porterfield and Alyssa Bracamonte of SAAVI Services for the Blind and Emily Gibbs for providing fun and creative activities for our youth at this year’s convention.

Of course, none of the NOPBC conference would be possible without our awesome conference director Melissa Riccobono, NOPBC president Carlton Walker, and NOPBC board! These volunteers have spent hundreds of hours planning this conference, all while still caring for their families and doing their professional jobs. They truly live their commitment to helping other families, changing what it means to be blind, and enabling our children to live the lives they want!
